Wants Pastor Returned.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

SALISBURY, N. C., November 14.—
The last quarterly conference of the First Methodist Church of this city was held Thursday night, when a unanimous request was passed asking that the pastor, Rev. E. K. McLaur, be returned to this charge by the annual conference, which meets at Asheville next week. The church elected a strong board of stewards, with Senator Lee S. Overman as chairman, W. T. Burk, recording steward T. H. Vanderford district steward, and W. R. Stummersett, superintendent of Sunday-school.

When the stomach at last sickens of all this abuse and cannot do its full duty, most men are not warned but keep up their assaults on the stomach until at last it rebels and begins to strike back and cry for help. Man by his own abuse has taken away from the stomach the tools to work with.
These tools are the gastric juless which go to make up the digestive agent. From seven to thirty-live pounds of gastric jules are turned into the stomach every day.

When poor, poisonous food consumes This julee, dilutes it, robs it of its ytrength and throws it, a fermented mass, from the system, of course there is just that much of the gastric fluid which cannot be readily supplied by the blood.

When food comes into a stomach filled with depleted fluids lacking of power to do their part, the good strong stomach is using poor tools, and, of yourse, cannot succeed in its work.

A condition which often prevails is that which takes place when the gastric jules contain too much alkali, if the jules were wholly alkaline it would not only devour and digest the fluid, but would cut and digest the stomach itself. Such gastric fluid does the digestion no good, and datacks the walls of the stomach, making them raw and were and setting up infammation and irritation.

Since its foundation, in 1776, the society has been through many vicissitudes and has undergone many changes. The society was formed December 5, 1776. It is not known if its origin was owing to trans-Atlantic models; but from the beginning it had aims to breed a race of scholastic leaders. At that time, however, the society was not upon its present foundation; it was more like the presentiaty Greek letter fraternities of the American college world. In the course of time many changes were wrought, such as the requisites for membership. To-day only men who have distinguished themselves in science or letters or graduates of the college who have given unusual promise are admitted to membership. It is, then, at mitted to membership. It is, then, at the present time composed wholly of famous men-men who are the think-famous men—men who are the thinkers and workers.

Though the original chapter differed from the chapters of the present day, it was founded upon reason and reveistion, as is evident from the first rule of the society—"That in every design or attempt, whether great or small, we ought to invoke the Deity." The meetings of the fraternity were at first held at "Raleigh Inn," and in these early meetings not mere scholastic

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., November 14.—On the 19th, 20th and 21st of this month Dr. Basil L. Gildersleeve, the famous Greek scholar and teacher, professor of Greek in Johns Hopkins University, will deliver a special course of lectures at the University of Virginia under the provisions of the BarbourPage Letture Foundation. This foundation was established last year by Dr. Thomas Nelson Page, of Washington, D. C., and was inaugurated by Dr. S. Weir Mitchell.

The general subject of Dr. Gildersleeve's lectures will, be "The Vitality of Greek Studies in America." They will be delivered on the successive evenings in Madison Hall. Severally, the lectures will bear the following littles: "The Channels of Life," "The Pervasiveness of the Greek Language
